

Reporting Ethical Concerns

How to Report:

If you would like to report an ethics concern, you may contact the CPS Energy Ethics HOTLINE, via the web or telephone. Both options are managed by an independent third-party company that provides anonymous reporting services for many companies worldwide. You may provide your contact information or remain anonymous. Please describe your concern and be as detailed as possible. The more information you provide, the better CPS Energy can support you.
