Are you an entrepreneur dreaming of homeownership but unsure where to start? Join us for a free, in-person workshop tailored specifically for business owners who want to prepare for buying a home while running their own business.

During this session, you'll learn:

- What lenders look for when self-employed applicants apply for a mortgage
- How to financially prepare and position your business income
- Ways to identify the right home for your needs
- How to take advantage of Bank of America's Community Homeownership Commitment, which offers grants, affordable mortgage options, and expert support to help qualified buyers

Whether you're buying your first home or planning your next move, this workshop will equip you with practical tools and personalized strategies to make your homeownership journey a reality.

Space is limited—reserve your seat today and take the next step toward owning a home built for your entrepreneurial lifestyle.
